Privacy Policy

Effective Date: 23rd February 2022

O2DES Team (“our”, or “us”) greatly recognizes and values the privacy of people (“you” or “User”) who visit our websites, use, or access our applications, whether on mobile devices, PCs, HoloLens, our websites, or other approved platforms.

This Privacy Policy applies to any and all of the O2DES Team services and describes why and how we collect, store, and use your personal data, and the choices and rights you have about the personal data you provide, or we collect in connection with the services. By accessing our websites or otherwise using the O2DES Team services, you acknowledge that you have read, understood, and accepted the following terms. In any case you do not agree to any of the terms, some basic functions in the O2DES Team services may not be able to run normally, which may prevent you from using them.

What Data We Collect and Process

Personal data means data that may be used to identify an individual, such as email address, contact address, postal code, position data, title, occupation, personal interests, and other data that you choose to submit.

Unless obtaining your express and additional consent in advance and for specific circumstances, we will not collect personally identifiable information (PII) or sensitive personal information (SPI), such as real name, address, and/or fax number. You acknowledge and agree that if you elect to submit any personal data, such personal data would be subject to this Privacy Policy, and you agree with all the terms therein.

Under any circumstance where our collection or processing of your personal data is based on your consent, you may withdraw such consent at any time with no impact on the validity and lawfulness of collection or processing based on the consent made before its withdrawal.

Contact and Complaints

To establish the personal data protection in a better and more efficient way, we, as the Data Controller, designate a Data Protection Officer (in short, “DPO”) who is responsible for the oversight and implementation of the personal data protection strategy and ensures our processing of personal data in compliance with necessary legal requirements stipulated in the applicable laws. If you have any questions about this Privacy Policy or have any requests for resolving issues with your personal data while using our services, please contact us as soon as possible.
